-----Original Message-----
From: Hauge, Stephanie [mailto:hauge.s@ghc.org]
Sent: Tuesday, February 22, 2005 4:58 PM
To: Lauren Patrich
Subject: vote

I read somewhere about "voting" in regard to the ban on cell phone usage on planes but I can't find the proper place to do so. Perhaps my email to you will suffice for my "vote".

I'd like to put in my two cents worth - I do not want the FCC to relax their ban on the use of cell phones on planes. I think that this would be a horrible idea for many reasons. Besides, if a person really needs to make a call many planes are equipped with onboard phones at each seat.

I simply can't imagine sitting next to someone who is conducting business or simply chatting to a friend because they're bored on a 1 hour or a 4 hour flight. It doesn't matter how long the flight is, I can just imagine all the "can you hear me now?, can you hear me now?" conversations, not to

3/25/2005

DOCKET FILE COPY ORIGINAL

No. of Copies rec'd 0
List ABCDE

mention that people tend to speak more loudly while on their cell phones. What a nightmare.

Thank you for allowing me to express my opinion. -Stephanie

Stephanie Hauge, MS
Project Manager

I'm in the office all day Tuesdays and Thursdays and Friday mornings until 10:30am.

Group Health Cooperative
Center for Health Studies
1730 Minor Ave., Suite 1600
Seattle, WA 98101-1448

Phone 206-287-2177
Fax 206-287-2871
hauge.s@ghc.org